

DIXON EVENING TELEGRAPH.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY BY ACT OF THE CITY COUNCIL

Telegraph Sixtieth First Year

DIXON, ILLINOIS WEDNESDAY JULY 3 1912.

Dixon Daily Telegraph Twenty-Ninth Year No.156

JACOB MAYER GOT FINE OF BUT $39.58

JURY OF TWELVE FOUND MAN GUILTY OF RUNNING DISORDERLY HOUSE.

OTHER CASES WILL BE TAKEN UP

Neighbors of Accused Man Sacrifice Modesty for Community's Good—Morbidity Crowd Jammed the Court Room.

The jury in the case of the City of Dixon vs. Jacob Mayer, which was tried yesterday in Justice Hanneken's court, returned a verdict at 8:45 last night, finding the defendant guilty and placing his fine at $39.58, and costs. The costs in the case are particularly heavy and the total will be nearly $100.

Immediately Attorney Brooks, the counsel for Mayer, gave notice that he would appeal the case to the circuit court, while Attorneys Keller and Edwards of the prosecution expressed satisfaction at securing a conviction and their confidence of having the verdict sustained by a jury in the circuit court, in case the case is appealed.

Compromise Verdict.

The verdict, to arrive at which the jury deliberated nearly two hours, was reached on a compromise, ten of the jury holding out for a fine near the maximum of $200, while two hung the jury by trying to give the minimum fine. As a result the compromise was reached and the jury discharged. To all good people of the city who heard the evidence the verdict of the jury is a disappointment and to the neighbors who braved the looks of the morbidly curious who packed the court room yesterday, it is especially so.

In cases of this kind it is hard to secure a conviction because of their nature, which makes it distasteful for neighbors to appear against the defendants. The people of Dementtown, who yesterday buried their prejudices and testified to assist in securing a conviction, have the thanks of the officers and the community.

Handled Nicely.

A feature of the case was the careful and clean manner in which the prosecution handled the case. As far as possible they refrained from objectionable language.

Will Try Other Cases.

Encouraged by their success in this prosecution the authorities are planning to renew the fight against the other defendants who were arrested in last Friday night's raid. The case against Mrs. Jacob Mayer will be taken up Friday, and when it is out of the way the prosecution of Mrs. Kate Boden and Frank Morris and Mrs. Scott will commence.

The board of review, which has been holding daily sessions, has adjourned until Monday morning.

Sterling, Ashton and Amboy will be scenes of celebrations and a large number of Dixon people will go to those cities.

Most of the stores have arranged to remain closed during the entire day, while a few will be open until 10 o'clock or noon. The banks will be closed all day, as will the county and city offices, and the regular holiday hours will prevail at the post-office. There will be no edition of the Telegraph, as it is the custom of this paper to allow the employees a holiday.

Ball Game in Afternoon.

BIG MEET ADJOURNS SINE DIE

Earlier in the Evening the Platform Was Adopted by a Viva Voce Vote—Chairman Ollie James Will Head Presidential Notification Committee, While Judge Parker Will Hold a Similar Office in Notifying Marshall.

Convention Hall, Baltimore, Md., July 3.—After nominating Gov. Thomas R. Marshall of Indiana as vice-presidential candidate to head the ticket with Woodrow Wilson, who was nominated for president, the Democratic national convention adjourned sine die at 1:55 a. m. A vice-president was nominated after two ballots had been taken and when it was seen that he had a long lead over Gov. John Burke of North Dakota and Senator George Chamberlain of Oregon. Burke withdrew and the nomination was made by acclamation.

Earlier in the evening the platform was adopted by a viva voce vote. No minority vote having been submitted. The roll call of states for nominations for vice-president was ordered at 9:40 p. m. The states were called to Idaho.

Clark for Vice-President.

Idaho yielded to H. H. Deane of Gainesville, Ga., who in an address to the convention nominated Champ Clark for vice-president.

Former Gov. A. M. Dockery of Missouri was next presented to the convention.

"Gentlemen, I appreciate the great honor paid to the greatest Democrat Missouri now has in public life. But I want to say that after more than an hour's conference with the members of the Missouri delegation, Champ Clark has decided that he cannot accept the office of vice-president. I want to say that Champ Clark is as loyal to the Democratic party as he ever was. With his own hand he has penned a congratulatory telegram to Woodrow Wilson.

"I want you to know that Clark occupies the same position that all the members of the Missouri delegation do—we are for Wilson first, last and all the time."

Burke's Name Presented.

Senator W. E. Purcell of North Dakota was recognized for the purpose of presenting the name of Governor Burke of North Dakota for vice-president.

Samuel Elschuler of Illinois then nominated Elmer W. Hurst of Rock Island, Ill., a delegate-at-large. After he had completed his speech, Senator Luke Lea of Tennessee moved the nominating speeches be limited to five minutes and seconding speeches to three minutes. It carried with a roar.

Henry Palmer of Iowa presented the name of Martin J. Wade of Iowa.

Kansas seconded the nomination of Burke. Louisiana seconded the nomination of Marshall. Alonzo L. Miles of Baltimore was the next speaker. Miles nominated Mayor James H. Preston of Baltimore.

Platform Is Presented.

After he had finished, A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania then asked that the convention give unanimous consent that the roll call be vacated while the resolutions committee be permitted to present the platform and that the vice-presidential nomination be taken up at midnight.

Senator Kern of Indiana then began the reading of the platform.

The reading was completed at 11:52 p. m. Chairman Kern of the resolutions committee moved its adoption. There was no minority report and the platform was adopted by a viva voce vote.

The list of new national committee-men was then read.

James Heads Committee.

A resolution was introduced that Chairman Ollie James be chairman of the committee to notify Woodrow Wilson of his nomination and that Alton B. Parker be chairman of the committee to notify the vice-presidential nominee. Then everyone else thankable was thanked in resolutions long and short.

WATCH THAT BOY TOMORROW

What will nightfall or tomorrow bring to Dixon homes? Will the cheerful mother of this evening be found kneeling with her face buried in the covers of a little white bed upon which is the bandaged, mutilated, burned and mangled form of what is tonight a happy, carefree, husky little lad, eager for the excitement of the morrow? Or will the chairs at the breakfast table on July 5th be all occupied and will Jack or Billie, or whatever his name is, be there with two arms and whole hands on the end of each suffering with nothing worse than too much ice cream of the day before? Will he look at you out of both eyes, and will he be able to run to the corner with Dad when he goes to work, or will he spend the rest of his life in a wheel chair or on crutches? This little fellow has a long life before him which should be full of health and happiness, but remember that he does not realize all this and that he depends on his parents to keep him out of trouble. Watch the little fellow tomorrow, and the little girls, too, and your watchfulness may save one of them from the surgeon's knife, or worse. The use of fire-crackers, or Roman candles, or explosives in any form by children should be prohibited by law.

FOUR CRUSHED TO DEATH BY C. & N. W. TRAIN

East-Bound Los Angeles Limited Kills Entire Automobile Party.

AIRSHIP BURST; 5 MEN PERISH

Melvin Vaniman and Four of Crew Die in Explosion and Fall into Sea Before Crowd at Atlantic City.

Aurora, Ill., July 3.—Four persons, two of whom, a man and a woman, were beheaded, were killed when the east-bound Los Angeles Limited of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad hit an automobile at Nelson's Crossing, two miles west of Geneva, Ill.

The occupants were all wealthy residents of Granger, Ia., enjoying an automobile trip from their home to Chicago and return. They chugged directly in front of the train and were dashed to death before they hardly had time to know what struck them.

Four Are Killed.

Following are the dead:

N. S. Anderson, Granger, Ia., fifty years old.

Mrs. N. S. Anderson, Granger, Ia., forty-eight years old.

George Hanley, Granger, Ia., forty years old.

James Hanley, forty-eight years old, Granger, Ia.

Five Airmen Are Killed.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 3.—Five lives were snuffed out in a $500,000 explosion half a mile in the air and a half mile off shore here, while 3,000 spectators looked on. The most ambitious project for flying across the ocean died at the same moment.

Melvin Vaniman's dirigible airship Akron, in which he was planning to fly across the Atlantic, burst into flames in midair. An instant after the first tongue of flame licked the swollen gas bag the entire fabric was blown into atoms with a report which was plainly heard on shore.

Four Bodies Not Recovered.

The five men who disappeared in the explosion, and four of whose bodies are entangled in the wreckage, were:

Melvin Vaniman, builder of the airship.

Calvin Vaniman, his younger brother.

Fred Elmer, member of crew.

Walter Guest, member of crew.

George Bourtellion, member of crew.

The headless body of Calvin Vaniman was found floating near the wreckage, which is sunk in 18 feet of water.

The dirigible was sailing at a height of 1,000 feet when the accident occurred. It was a quarter of a mile south of Brigantine Beach, which is across the inlet from this city.

TRAIN DEMOLISHED RURAL CARRIER'S CAR

DUDLEY WOODWORTH IN BAD ACCIDENT AT NELSON CROSSING THIS MORNING—ESCAPED UNHURT.

Dudley Woodworth, rural carrier on route 6 out of Dixon, was close to death this morning when a fast passenger train struck his automobile at the Nelson crossing. The machine was nearly demolished, but Mr. Woodworth escaped unhurt.

In attempting to cross the tracks ahead of the train the driver "killed" his engine and did not have the time to start it before the train struck it, although he jumped from his seat in the car and made a determined and nerve effort to push the car out of the path of the oncoming locomotive with his hands. He had but recently purchased the machine, which was a Ford, and had hoped to make good use of it in his work of distributing mail to rural patrons, and in adding to the efficiency of the service.

NOMINATED ON 46TH BALLOT

Underwood's Manager First to Realize Defeat and Withdraw His Candidate From the Race.

CLARK RELEASES MEN

Motion to Name Governor by Acclamation at End of 45th Vote Objected by Senator Reed.

PENNSYLVANIA VOTE DECISIVE

Wary Delegates Stand on Chairs and Shout Wildly When Trend of Vote Is Known—Missouri and New York Alone Sat Unmoved Throughout Demonstration—Wilson Adherents Dash About Hall Shaking Hands, Hugging Each Other and Dancing With Glee.

Baltimore, Md., July 3.—Gov. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey was nominated for president by the Democratic national convention on the forty-sixth ballot.

This was brought about after the name of Congressman Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama had been withdrawn, the delegates instructed for Speaker Champ Clark had been released and Gov. Eugene N. Foss of Massachusetts had been removed as a possibility.

Governor Wilson only lacked 93 votes of a nomination at the close of the forty-fifth ballot, and it was apparent to all nothing could head off his victory on the subsequent ballot.

Roll Call Is Demanded.

It was then that the other candidates began to get out of the way, and when the field was left clear Congressman John J. Fitzgerald of New York moved that Governor Wilson be declared the nominee of the convention without the formality of a roll call.

This would have been the end of a titanic struggle which had continued for more than a week had not Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, one of the champions of Clark, objected to giving Wilson the honor of a vote by acclamation.

Chairman James then ordered the forty-sixth ballot, and Alabama, which had supported Underwood without faltering on all previous ballots, cast its full vote for Governor Wilson. One after another of the states did the same thing, and the convention became a veritable bedlam of enthusiasm.

New York Misses Opportunity.

Illinois led the break which placed Wilson within reach of the nomination. The delegation from this state acted at the psychological moment, shifting from Clark to Wilson on the forty-third ballot. It was the start of an irresistible movement toward the New Jersey man which never was stopped.

New York, after Illinois had paved the way, had the opportunity on the forty-fourth, and again on the forty-fifth ballot, to cast the vote which undoubtedly would have been decisive, but it permitted the chance to pass.

Virginia and West Virginia followed the lead of Illinois on the forty-third ballot, and Colorado took its cue from the same source on the forty-fourth ballot. Enough more were added to the Wilson column on the forty-fifth to bring him within 100 of the nomination. Then the handwriting appeared on the wall, and the final acts of the struggle were staged.

Arkansas came into the Wilson camp from Clark on the last roll call, but Florida, which had been supporting Underwood, gave five of its votes to Clark. Georgia gave its 28 to Wilson, the native of another southern state. Kentucky, too, which had been loyal to the speaker from the beginning, added its 28 to the Wilson vote.

Foss Men Vote Solidly.

Massachusetts, which had been flirting with Governor Foss with 27 of its votes almost from the beginning, cast a solid vote once more, this time with the majority.

Mississippi came over from Underwood without a loss, but Missouri remained true to its favorite son, and was cheered for so doing by the galleries.

"Jim" Smith and his four from New Jersey went down with the ship in their opposition to the governor of that state, but the other 24, who never had wavered or lost faith in ultimate victory, cast their vote for Wilson with an exultant shout.

And then New York, which had been scourged by Bryan, and which had been told by the Nebraskan that its support of a candidate was as if the mark of Cain had been placed on the brow of that candidate, wheeled into line before the procession had passed, and cast its 90 votes for the man Bryan had been supporting since an early day in the contest.

But New York came in too late. Mr. Bryan had expressed the hope the convention might select a nominee of New York was Wilson, although without the formal action of the convention, was made before this roll call began. New York simply crawled under the tent.

Pennsylvania Vote Decisive.

When Pennsylvania was reached at 3:15 o'clock Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer, the chairman, the man who defeated Guffey and delivered that big state from the control of the reactionaries to the progressives, and who had been one of the directors of the Wilson campaign, again cast the 76 votes of that state for his candidate, and had the satisfaction of knowing that this vote made the Wilson total sufficient to give Wilson the nomination. With Pennsylvania the governor's vote was 733, or seven more than the necessary two-thirds.

The forty-sixth ballot totals were:

Woodrow Wilson 990
Champ Clark 84
Judson Harmon 12

The nomination was finally made by acclamation on the motion of Senator Stone.

At 3:41 o'clock the convention adjourned until 9 o'clock in the evening. At that time the nomination for a vice-president and the adoption of a platform was taken up.

At 12:15 o'clock Chairman James directed the calling of the roll for the forty-third time.

The hall was quiet as Illinois was reached. When Roger C. Sullivan of Chicago announced: "Eighteen votes for Clark; forty for Wilson," there was great cheering.

James Applies Unit Rule.

"Illinois, under the unit rule, casts 58 votes for Wilson," he announced, and another cheer greeted the shift. This gave Wilson a clear gain of 68 votes in Illinois.

When Kentucky was called the vote was announced 26 for Clark. In Louisiana Wilson gained two and in Michigan eight additional votes were obtained.

New York stopped what for a few minutes looked like a Wilson landslide. Representative William Sulzer announced the New York vote as 90 for Clark as heretofore. This dispelled all hope of a nomination on this ballot.

When Virginia was reached Senator Swanson arose to explain that at a caucus the delegation had decided to enforce the unit rule for the first time. Wilson had secured a majority of the delegation and the state's 24 votes were cast for him.

The entire Clark vote of 16 in West Virginia went over to Wilson. In Wisconsin Wilson gained one more.

Once more the call of the roll began. It was the forty-fourth ballot, and Wilson in the beginning gained one in Arizona. Colorado climbed aboard the "band wagon," giving Wilson a gain of nine. This made the vote ten to two for Wilson.

Wisconsin swung into line with its 26 solid votes and a cheer from the Wilson adherents greeted the gain of four votes.

The end came in sight when, at the beginning of the forty-fifth ballot Senator Bankhead of Alabama, manager for the Underwood forces, mounted the platform.

Senator Bankhead concluded briefly with the statement that at Mr. Underwood's request he withdrew his name from further consideration, leaving his delegates free to vote for whom they chose.

Clark's Men In Conference.

While Senator Bankhead talked, the Clark forces, foreseeing a break from Underwood to Clark, scurried about the hall.

Charles F. Murphy moved up the center aisle to the Missouri delegation. David R. Francis and Senator Reed of the Missouri delegation joined him in a whispered conference. Representative Fitzgerald of New York left the platform and joined the group.

Meantime the Wilson leaders hurried to the platform. Senator Gore of Oklahoma, Roger C. Sullivan of Illinois, A. Mitchell Palmer and Representative Burleson of Texas talked there in excited whispers.

When Senator Bankhead concluded Senator Stone of Missouri went to the platform and asked unanimous consent to be allowed to make a statement.

"Speaking for Speaker Clark," said Senator Stone, "I will release—if release be necessary—any delegation instructed for him. I would not have a single delegation stay with him for a single roll call under any sense of obligation to him."

"I need not tell this convention or the friends of old Champ Clark that he will stand by the nominee of this convention loyally to the end."

When Senator Stone finished Mayor Fitzgerald of Boston mounted the platform. He withdrew the name of Governor Foss of Massachusetts and announced that the Massachusetts delegation would vote for Wilson.

Uproar greeted this announcement, for the nomination of Wilson had now become a practical certainty.

Foss Leader Asks Harmony.

When the disorder subsided Representative Fitzgerald, who had just finished a conference with Murphy, took the stage. His advent marked the end of the opposition to Wilson as an organized body. Fitzgerald made a plea for harmony.

The weary delegates stood on their chairs and shouted wildly. Missouri and New York alone sat unmoved throughout the demonstration.

Wilson adherents dashed about the hall, shaking hands, hugging each other and almost dancing with glee. The aisles were jammed and the sergeants-at-arms and the police fought in vain to quiet the throng.

SKIN ERUPTION CAME ON CHEEK
Started in Pimples. Nearly All One Cheek Solid Sore. Very Fretful. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Face All Healed Up.

Kingsley, Mich.—"Last May my thirteen months' old baby had a sore come on her cheek. It started in four or five small pimples and in two or three hours' time spread to the size of a silver dollar. It spread to her eye. Then water would run from the pimples and wherever that touched it caused more sores until nearly all one cheek and up her nostrils were one solid sore. She was very fretful. She certainly was a terrible looking child, and nothing seemed to be of any use. Then I got some Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. She tried to rub off everything we put on so that we would sit and hold her hands for two hours at a time, trying to give the medicine a chance to help her, but after I washed it with Cuticura Soap and then put on the Cuticura Ointment they seemed to soothe her and she did not try to rub them off. It was only a few days before her face was all healed up, and there has been no return of the trouble since. We thought that baby's face would surely be scarred, but it is not." (Signed) Mrs. W. J. Cleland, Jan. 5, 1912.
Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston." Be Tender-faced men should use Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free.

Dixon Citizens Gladly Testify and Confidently Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills

It is testimony like the following that has placed Doan's Kidney Pills so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Dixon citizen.

Joan Salzman, 103 Artesian Ave., Dixon, Ill., says: "I have no reason to change my good opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I publicly expressed some years ago. I had back ache a great deal and pains across my loins. My kidneys did not act regularly and I felt miserable in every way. Finally I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Leake Bros. Co's Drug store and they did good work, relieving me. I keep them in the house and whenever I take them, they help me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

TRAIN BEHEADS TWO

FOUR PERSONS KILLED WHEN ENGINE HITS AUTO.

Party of Iowans on Pleasure Trip Meet Death at Crossing Near Geneva, Ill.

Aurora, Ill., July 3.—Four persons, two of whom, a man and a woman, were beheaded, were killed when the east-bound Los Angeles Limited of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad hit an automobile at Nelson's Crossing, two miles west of Geneva, Ill.

The occupants were all wealthy residents of Granger, Ia., enjoying an automobile trip from their home to Chicago and return. They chugged directly in front of the train and were dashed to death before they hardly had time to know what had struck them.

The dead:

N. S. Anderson, fifty years old.

Mrs. N. S. Anderson, forty-eight years old.

George Hanley, forty years old.

James Hanley, thirty-eight years old.

The accident brought to an end what had been the first long automobile ride Mr. and Mrs. Anderson had ever enjoyed. Anderson, head of the Granger Elevator company, had received an invitation from the Hanley brothers, lumber dealers, to accompany them, with his wife, on an automobile trip to Chicago in their machine. They left last Wednesday and had spent several days visiting with friends in Chicago, and were on their return trip.

Solid As a Rock!

Here is the absolutely new anchoring device used only on the old reliable Saginaw Silo, which makes it as solid as one piece of granite—as immovable as a mountain. It is our Handy Inner Anchoring Hoop, which circles the inside of the silo above the silage and directly opposite the top outside hoop. It supports any stave that might loosen and prevents them falling inward. Once in place, it needs no attention, no adjusting. Cables from anchoring points to ground rods complete support. What dynamite could hardly move. No loose staves! No falling in! No blowing down! Write today for details. He Got the Name.

A snob was once put up for a promnent club, where men met nightly to discuss political or billiard questions of the hour. Unfortunately for him, he was not elected, and his wrath was terrible.

Forgetful of English manners and customs, he wrote an indignant letter to the secretary of the club, demanding the name of the member who had blackballed him.

The secretary's reply was brief:
"Dear Sir—His name is Legion."—
London Tit-Bits.

THE PACE THAT DAZZLES.

Mrs. De Wealth—Mercy, John! Is it necessary that we go fifty miles an hour?

Mr. De Wealth—But, Marie, if we go slower, people will say that our automobile cost only $2,000 or so.

Quite So.

Her Pride Spared.

"Mrs. Jobson, your husband was run over by an automobile just now and seriously hurt. He is at the People's hospital."

"Dear me! I'll go at once. What kind of car ran over him?"

"The Whiffers' new $7,000 limousine."

"Thank heaven, it wasn't one of those common little runabouts."

Retort Spiteful.

Neil—I think women take up entirely too much time at the looking glass.
I very seldom spend idle moments at my mirror.

Helle—But, my dear, that may be because it takes some reflection to face the truth.

He Agreed.

"What you need," said the wordy meddler in his ponderous way, "is an enlargement of your daily round, a wider circle of activity."

"Mebby that's right," said the patient. "I'm a bareback rider in a one ring circus."

Fish Story.

Knicker—A month ago I told a lie on the water.

Bocker—Well?
Knicker—I cut open the fish I caught today and found he had swallowed it.

NECESSARILY.

The Comedian—Yep, we played to standing room only in Squeedunk.

The Tragedian—Indeed!

The Comedian—Sure thing. You see the sheriff had attached and removed all the seats in the opera house.
